No. S. B. D. 971
Date April 18, 1940.

Subject Cecil COLEMAN - Communication dated March 31, 1940 from H.B.C.

Consulate-General.

Made by D.S. Pitts. Forwarded by D.I. Crawford.

With reference to the attached communication dated March 31, 1940 from H.B.C. Consulate-General requesting information in regard to one Cecil COLEMAN, I have to report that this individual's correct name is:

Cecil Edward KOHLMANN

He is a British subject by birth and is of German Jewish extraction. He holds British Passport No. 223620 issued by the Foreign Office, London on July 10, 1930. It has been renewed and is valid until July 10, 1940. This document, which has been seen, bears an endorsement to the effect that "bearer wished to be known as Cecil COLEMAN."

In connection with the remarks "We have no record of Coleman" appearing in the attached letter, it has to be pointed out that the person under discussion, under the name of Cecil COLEMAN, was charged in the British Court on August 29, 1939 for a breach of bye-law 34 (driving a car without a licence) when he was convicted and cautioned.

Dear Mr. Yorke,

A naturalised British subject has written to us in connexion with a claim against a certain Cecil Coleman, Room 262, Hamilton House, 170 Kiangse Road, whom she described as of German-Jewish descent and holding a British passport.

We have no record of Coleman and I wonder whether you can help to discover what Coleman's nationality is and whether he holds a British passport.

Yours sincerely,

Passport Control Officer.
